Meetings

- Section 1. Meetings. The Board may be called by, or at the request of, the Chairperson or any two Directors. All meetings of the Board shall be open to the public. Mailed notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with first-class postage thereon prepaid. Electronic notice shall be deemed to be delivered when sent. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting whether before or after the meeting. The presence of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of the Board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. The vote of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present constitutes the action of the Board, unless the vote of a larger number is required by law or by these Bylaws.

Section 4. Committees. The Board may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors then in office, establish one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the Directors of the Authority. Section 1. Indemnification, Judgment, Settlement, Etc. The Authority shall indemnify any person who is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he/she is or was a Director against expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he/she acted in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Authority and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Authority and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful.
